MARY WALSH, et. al.,
Def

3:12-cv-00534-MMD-WGC

REPORT & RECOMMENDATION OF U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE

MARY WALSH, et. al.,
Defendants.

This Report and Recommendation is made to the Honorable Miranda M. Du, United States District Judge. This action was referred to the undersigned Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and the Local Rules of Practice (LR) 1B 1-4. Before the court is Plaintiff's "Emergency" Motion for Courts to Protect this Plaintiff from the Defendants." (Doc. # 237.)<sup>1</sup> He filed a "Motion to Supplement Missing/Stolen Legal Documents." (Doc. # 240.)

I. BACKGROUND

A. Summary of Action

At all relevant times, Plaintiff was an inmate in custody of the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC). (Pl.'s Am. Compl., Doc. # 22.) The events giving rise to this action took place while Plaintiff was housed at Ely State Prison (ESP) and Northern Nevada Correctional Center (NNCC). (Id.; Screening Order, Doc. # 44.)

Currently, the defendants include: Ronald Abeloe, Kitekeiaho Afeaki, Robert Banchi, Renee Baker, Dr. Robert Bannister, Chad Bowler, Ronald Bryant, Harold M. Byrne, Adam Caldwell, John Cardella, Joshua Clark, James "Greg" Cox, Russell Donnelly, Sheryl Foster, Ronald Hannah, Justin Henley, Gail Holmes, Brea Howard, Helen Hubbard, Nathan Hughes, Danielle Iratcabal, Bert Jackson, Dillyn Keith, Koree Kirkpatrick, Sr., Dr. Michael Koehn,

1 Brandon Lawrence, Dr. David Mar, Robert Meares, James Mitchell, Ronnie Montoya, Roger
 2 Mooney, Dwight Neven, Eric Ortiz, Jack Palmer, Jacob Parr, Westly Radford, Dr. Julie
 3 Rexwinkel, Larry Rickman, Kathryn Rose, Tasheena Sandoval, Andrew Silverstein, Elizabeth
 4 "Lisa" Walsh, and April Witter. (See Doc. # 202, Doc. # 216, Doc. # 247.)

5 Plaintiff has also named defendants Brown and Thompson; however, the Attorney
 6 General's Office has not accepted service on behalf of those individuals and they have not yet
 7 been served. (Id.) Plaintiff has also named Randy Tice, but service has not yet been effectuated
 8 as to that individual. (See Docs. # 206, # 254.)

9 On screening, the court determined Plaintiff could proceed with claims for retaliation,
 10 Eighth Amendment conditions of confinement, Eighth Amendment failure to protect, Eighth
 11 Amendment deliberate indifference to a serious medical need, due process, and First Amendment
 12 speech and religious rights claims against these defendants. (Doc. # 44.)

13 B. Summary of Motion

14 In this motion, Plaintiff asserts that on March 25, 2014, defendant Homan<sup>2</sup> came to his
 15 cell on behalf of Warden Baker and said that Plaintiff had been informing the court of Plaintiff's
 16 misconduct and that the Attorney General's Office had instructed the prison to "take care of the 17 problem" so Homan said he would take Plaintiff to the infirmary. (Doc. # 237 at 1.) Plaintiff
 18 refused. (Id.)

19 Then, on March 26, 2014, Dr. Koehn came to Plaintiff's unit and said he was going to 20 force Plaintiff into the infirmary, and Plaintiff contested, to no avail. (Id. at 3.) Defendant Brown
 21 then put Plaintiff in a locked shower in restraints, and he fell and injured himself. (Id.) In the 22 process of being taken to the infirmary on a stretcher, he was further injured. (Id.) Then, Plaintiff
 23 contends that Dr. Koehn failed to provide adequate medical treatment. (Id. at 3-4.) He was told
 24 he was being punished for contacting the court. (Id.)

25 Plaintiff goes on to assert that defendant Jackson gave him a sharp object and told
 26 Plaintiff to kill himself, and Plaintiff gave himself six to eight lacerations into his left arm;

28 <sup>2</sup> Plaintiff refers to this individual as "defendant Homan;" however, there is no defendant Homan named in this action to date. (See Doc. # 237 at 1.)

1 however, Homan and others who observed him provided no medical treatment. (Id.)

2 Plaintiff claims that he was told that while he was in medical his legal documents and
 3 property would be taken by Associate Warden Fletcher on March 26, 2014, who said they would
 4 be returned to Plaintiff the following day. (Id. at 5.) On March 27, 2014, Plaintiff was given
 5 seven legal boxes and property in the infirmary, but it had been damaged, destroyed, and stolen.
 6 (Id.) These included Defendants' dispositive motion, Plaintiff's rough draft responding to the 7 motion and grievances related to the response to the motion, among other documents that he
 8 contends are relevant to this case and other cases, his family photos, clothes, letters, poems,
 9 drawings, food, linens, canteen receipts and legal supplies. (Id. at 5-9, 12.)

10 Next, Plaintiff contends that Oxborrow, Healer, Baker, Byrne, Foster and Cox returned
 11 approximately 200 grievances to Plaintiff with a five day time period to respond, and forged
 12 Plaintiff's signature and the receipt date so that Plaintiff effectively only had three days to 13 respond. (Id. at 11.)

14 In his supplemental motion, Plaintiff references additional grievance documentation and 15 contends that defendant Byrne forged Plaintiff's name on grievances and refused to return the 16 referenced grievances. (Doc. # 240 at 1.) Plaintiff contends he has been denied original copies of 17 these grievances. (Id.) at 2.)

18 II. DISCUSSION

19 The court interprets Plaintiff's motion as a request for injunctive relief. A preliminary 20 injunction is an "extraordinary and drastic remedy" that is never awarded as a right. Munaf v.
21 Geren, 553 U.S. 674, 689-90 (2008). Instead, courts must "balance competing claims of injury 22 and...the effect of the granting or withholding of the requested relief." Winter v. Natural
23 Resources Defense Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7, 24 (2008) (citation and internal quotation marks 24 omitted). A plaintiff seeking an injunction must demonstrate: (1) a likelihood of success on the 25 merits; (2) a likelihood of suffering irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief; (3) the 26 balance of equities tips in his or her favor; and (4) an injunction is in the public interest. Winter,
 27 555 U.S. at 20. Plaintiff has not addressed any of these factors establishing he is entitled to 28 injunctive relief.

1       Moreover, Plaintiff has been advised on multiple occasions that a request for injunctive
 2 relief filed in this action must be related to the claims proceeding in this action. See, e.g., Little v.
 3 Jones, 607 F.3d 1245, 1250-51 (10th Cir. 2010); Colvin v. Caruso, 605 F.3d 282, 299-300 (6th
 4 Cir. 2010); Omega World Travel, Inc. v. Trans World Airlines, 111 F.3d 14, 16 (4th Cir. 1997).
 5 Devose v. Herrington, 42 F.3d 470, 471 (8th Cir. 1994).

6       This action involves claims brought under the Eighth and First Amendments concerning
 7 alleged conduct that occurred while Plaintiff was housed at ESP and NNCC in 2012. (See Doc.
 8 # 44.) In these motions, Plaintiff is asserting new claims for alleged violation of the Eighth
 9 Amendment, retaliation, access to courts and interference with his property. This action has been
 10 pending since October 2012, and includes over forty defendants and numerous claims. In order
 11 to try to effectively manage this action so that it may proceed toward resolution and in fairness to 12 all participants, the pleadings need to be finalized. If Plaintiff seeks relief regarding these new 13 allegations, they need to be asserted in a new action. If Plaintiff feels that he is entitled to 14 injunctive relief in that action, he should file a new complaint, along with a motion for injunctive
 15 relief that addresses the factors outlined above.

16       To the extent Plaintiff raises issues about being able to respond to Defendants' pending
 17 dispositive motion in this action, the court has issued separate orders to address that concern and 18 will handle it accordingly. The court will review the briefing on that issue but intends to allow 19 Plaintiff reasonable access to all grievance documentation that is necessary to respond to 20 Defendants' pending dispositive motion. The logistical details concerning this review will be 21 discussed in that context. The court has also issued a separate order to address Plaintiff's
 22 contention that prison officials are not allowing him to make copies of filings so that he may 23 retain them for his records.

24       In sum, the court recommends that Plaintiff's motions (Doc. # 237, # 240) be denied.

25 III. RECOMMENDATION

26       IT IS HEREBY RECOMMENDED that the District Judge issue an order DENYING 27 Plaintiff's "Emergency" Motion for Courts to Protect this Plaintiff from the Defendants" (Doc.
 28 # 237) and "Motion to Supplement Missing/Stolen Legal Documents" (Doc. # 240).

1           The parties should be aware of the following:

2           1. That they may file, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C), specific written objections to
3 this Report and Recommendation within fourteen days of receipt. These objections should be 4 titled "Objections to Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation" and should be
5 accompanied by points and authorities for consideration by the district judge.

6           2. That this Report and Recommendation is not an appealable order and that any notice of 7 appeal pursuant to Rule 4(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure should not be filed
8 until entry of judgment by the district court.
